

Davis, Bowen & Friedel, Inc.'s Goller attains Virginia P.E. License

Davis, Bowen & Friedel, Inc. (DBF) is pleased to announce Aaron K. Goller, P.E. recently attained professional engineering licensure in the state of Virginia.

Aaron K. Goller, P.E. is a Senior Engineer in the Salisbury office where his areas of expertise include water and sewer system modeling; wastewater collection, conveyance and disposal systems; water supply, treatment, storage and distribution systems; roadway design; and stormwater collection systems. A graduate of the University of Pittsburg at Johnstown, Goller has fourteen years of experience in Civil and Environmental Engineering. His work with municipalities and other government agencies, including Somerset County Sanitary District, Worcester County Department of Public Works, Talbot County, Sussex County, Town of Blades, Town of Delmar, City of Rehoboth, and Town of Sharptown among many others, includes water and wastewater, transportation, civil and site development, and water resources projects.

Goller provides a full spectrum of services for his clients ranging from planning, preliminary engineering evaluations, funding acquisition, design, permitting, bidding, construction administration, and field inspections. Goller is also a registered professional engineer in the state of Maryland, Delaware, and Pennsylvania, as well as the President of the American Society of Civil Engineers Eastern Shore Branch.

“Goller’s licensure in Virginia allows DBF to better serve our growing client base on the Eastern Shore of Virginia. With five other Virginia licensed professionals on staff, including an architect, a Registered Landscape Architect and a Professional Land Surveyor, we look forward to continuing to assist this region,” noted DBF Principal Jason P. Loar, P.E.

Davis, Bowen & Friedel, Inc., is a full-service architectural, engineering, planning and surveying firm with offices in Salisbury and Easton, Maryland, and Milford, Delaware. For additional information about DBF, visit www.dbfinc.com.
