Davis, Bowen & Friedel, Inc. (DBF) has welcomed its newest staff members, Kimberly A. Bateman and Brian R. Kohut.

Kimberly A. Bateman has joined DBF's team serving as an administrative assistant. Bateman is responsible for overseeing administrative functions at DBF's corporate office in Salisbury, Md. Bateman's responsibilities include supporting daily office operations, coordinating intra-office events, maintaining internal filing systems and directing phone calls to assist clients.

Brian R. Kohut, DBF's newest resident project representative (RPR), brings a decade of experience in the construction industry. Before DBF, Kohut was employed with White Creek Homes as a foreman and carpenter. Kohut's current role involves serving as the eyes and ears for engineers on project sites. He is well versed in reviewing and inspecting construction activity and is currently providing RPR services for the following projects: Fort Whaley Wastewater Treatment Facility, Traveler's Motel Water and Sewer Connection and Mystic Harbor Effluent Discharge Disposal.

"As DBF grows, we are looking for people with a passion for what they do and the drive to grow with us. Our newest team members have those qualities," said President Michael R. Wigley, AIA, LEED AP.

Davis, Bowen & Friedel, Inc., is a full-service architectural, engineering, planning and surveying firm with offices in Salisbury and Easton, Maryland, and in Milford, Delaware. For additional information about DBF, visit www.dbfinc.com.
